HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

You are receiving this Privacy Notice because you are eligible to participate in an employer sponsored group health plans. The Health Plans are committed to protecting the confidentiality of any health information collected about an individual. This Notice describes how the Health Plan may use and disclose, “protected health information” (PHI). For information to be considered “PHI”, it must meet three conditions:

Information is created or received by a health care provider, health plan, employer, or health care clearinghouse; Information relates past, present, or future physical or mental health condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and the information either identifies the individual or provides a reasonable basis for believing that it can be used to identify the individual.

The Health Plan is required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) to provide this Notice to an individual. Additionally, the Health Plan is required by law to:

Maintain the privacy of an individual’s “protected health information” (PHI) and provide you with the Privacy Notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to an individual’s PHI and follow the terms of its Privacy Notice that is currently in effect.

Employees of the plan sponsor who administer and manage this Health Plan may use PHI only for appropriate plan purposes (such as for payment or health care operations), but not for purposes of other benefits not provided by this plan, and not for employment-related purposes of the plan sponsor. These individuals must comply with the same requirements that apply to the Health Plan to protect the confidentiality of PHI.
